Syllabus Feedback

1. Students are majorly satisfied with the MBA syllabus, noting it encourages creativity, self-learning, and a good balance of theory and practice. It also meets industry expectations and promotes employability.
2. Some student's suggestions include more interactive sessions, practical specializations, and a focus on global trends and ethical values.
3. Additionally, students suggested the need for a clearer syllabus structure and more focus on specific specializations.
4. The Teachers feedback shows strong approval for the syllabus's relevance to industry expectations, skill development, and employability.
5. Some Teachers' suggestions include improving the balance between theory and practice, adding global business perspectives, offering certifications, and focusing on soft skills and employability grooming to enhance placement opportunities.
6. The overall Parents satisfaction with the MBA program is high, particularly in areas such as curriculum relevance, teaching support, and infrastructure.
7. While most employers rated communication, technical skills, and leadership as highly satisfied, there are some neutral and low responses
8. The employer agreed syllabus meets industry expectations, but some feel the balance between theory and practice could be better, and global trends should be included more.
9. Alumni feedback indicates strong agreement across all areas, particularly in the MBA syllabus' alignment with industry needs, employability skills, and the balance of theory and practical application.
10. Overall, the feedback is very positive, with many alumni praising the practical teaching methods and the useful certifications offered by the institute.
